Total for Minor in Asian Studies		24

· A history major may not count more than two courses toward both the major and the minor.

· Approved Tri-College courses may substitute for one or more of the above courses.

· In fulfilling the requirements listed above, the student must complete at least one course in political science and one course in religious studies. At least one Asian language course and two of the non-language courses must be completed in residence at Randolph College.

*Specify the courses you are using to fulfill the requirement, transfer courses or another course you are being allowed to substitute. Note: The Request for Substitution of Major/Minor Requirement Form must be completed for substituted courses.

I understand that I am responsible for successfully completing all courses listed by the end of my final year with a minimum GPA of 2.0 (rounded), for determining that scheduling will allow me to fulfill requirements, and for obtaining approval for any courses taken at another institution to count toward the major.
