- The core program must be completed prior to taking BUS 495R.
- ECON 227 may NOT be used as a 200-level elective in the major.
- Students who transfer to Randolph College with credit for a 200-level, or higher, course in business or management, but not BUS 151 (Introduction to Business), will substitute a BUS 200-level or 300-level elective for BUS 151.
- Twelve hours of the BUS courses, including BUS 495, and fifteen hours of the major must be completed in residence at Randolph College.
- Student may major in both Business and Economics or major in one field and minor in the other field. For multiple programs, for double majors the only courses that can overlap are ECON 101, 102, and 227 and for a major and a minor ECON 101 and 102.
- Students reading for honors in business must take 495 in the fall of the senior year and must declare their intention to read for honors in the preceding spring semester. Two of the three business electives must be completed prior to reading for honors.

*Specify the courses you are using to fulfill the requirement, transfer courses or another course you are being allowed to substitute. Note: The Request for Substitution of Major/Minor Requirement Form must be completed for substituted courses.

I understand that I am responsible for successfully completing all courses listed by the end of my final year with a minimum GPA of 2.0 (rounded), for determining that scheduling will allow me to fulfill requirements, and for obtaining approval for any courses taken at another institution to count toward the major.
